Dear Federal Election Commission Staff:

As chairperson of the Denville Republican County Committee I write in reference to the subject organization's omission in filing regular reports with the Federal Election Commission.

Sometime during early 2003 the club held a reorganization meeting and elected new officers. No additional meetings were held in 2003 and apparently because there was no local election in 2004 the club fell into dormancy. All of the officers have either resigned and/or moved from the community. There is no person currently responsible for filing reports.

As a remedy we are currently soliciting membership applications and dues for the Denville Republican Club. We will hold a reorganization meeting in accordance with the club's by-laws within the next thirty days to elect officers who will prepare all required Federal Election Commission reports.

Would you please send compliance information and report forms so that our officers will be fully aware of the reporting requirements?

Please be assured that we will file all necessary reports in compliance with the next reporting deadline. Your confirmation of acceptance of the above resolution would be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Cioffi
